

PRIVACY POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 We take your privacy very seriously. Please read this privacy policy carefully as it contains important information on who we are, the types of data we collect about you, how and why we collect, store, use and share your personal data. It also explains your rights in relation to your personal data and how to contact us or supervisory authorities in the event you have a complaint.
- 1.2 We collect, use and are responsible for certain personal data about you. When we do so we are subject to the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR).
- 1.3 Unless otherwise stated, defined terms in this Policy shall have the same meaning set out in the Articles of Association and in the Framework Document accessible on the Organisation's website.
- 1.4 This policy applies to any personal data we collect about you when you:
 - 1.4.1 use any of our websites;
 - 1.4.2 use any of our apps;
 - 1.4.3 contact us or when we contact you;
 - 1.4.4 apply for one of our vacancies;
 - 1.4.5 purchase goods or services from us;
 - 1.4.6 provide services or goods to us (where, for example, you are a sole trader, partnership or where you are providing services or goods on behalf of your employer/contractor); and/or
 - 1.4.7 visit our sites.
- 1.5 Please read the following carefully to understand our views and practices regarding your personal data and how we will treat it.

3. PERSONAL DATA WE COLLECT ABOUT YOU

3.1 The personal data we collect about you depends on the particular products and services we provide to you. We may collect and use the following personal data about you:

- 3.1.1 your name and contact information, including email address and telephone number and company details;
- 3.1.2 information to enable us to check and verify your identity (e.g. your date of birth);
- 3.1.3 details of relevant qualifications you hold (e.g. coaching and officiating qualifications);
- 3.1.4 details of your attendance at games, matches and events;
- 3.1.5 your gender, if you choose to give this to us;
- 3.1.6 location data (if you choose to give this to us);
- 3.1.7 your billing information, transaction and payment card information;
- 3.1.8 your personal or professional interests;
- 3.1.9 your professional online presence (e.g. LinkedIn profile);
- 3.1.10 your contact history, purchase history and saved items;
- 3.1.11 information from accounts you link to us (e.g. Facebook);
- 3.1.12 information about how you use our website(s), IT, communication and other systems;
- 3.1.13 your responses to surveys, competitions and promotions;
- 3.1.14 when you visit Volleystore, certain information about your device, including information about your web browser, IP address, time zone, and some of the cookies that are installed on your device. Also as you browse the site, we collect information about the individual web pages or products that you view, what websites or search terms referred you to the site, and information about how you interact with the site;
- 3.1.15 when you make a purchase or attempt a purchase at Volleystore, your name, billing address, shipping address, payment information (including credit card numbers), email address, and phone number.

3.2 We collect and use this personal data to provide products and/or services to you. If you do not provide personal data we ask for, it may delay or prevent us from providing any of our products and/or services to you.

4. HOW YOUR PERSONAL DATA IS COLLECTED

4.1 We collect most of this personal data directly from you in person, by telephone, text or email and/or via our websites (including Volleyzone and Volleystore) and apps. However, we may also collect information:

- 4.1.1 from publicly accessible sources (e.g. Companies House or HM Land Registry);
- 4.1.2 directly from a third party, including:
 - (a) sanctions screening providers;
 - (b) credit reference agencies;
 - (c) customer due diligence providers.
- 4.1.3 from a third party with your consent (e.g. your Club, a Regional Association or Local Association);
- 4.1.4 from cookies, log files and web beacons on our website(s) - for more information on our use of cookies, please see our Cookies Policy;
- 4.1.5 via our IT systems, including:
 - (a) door entry systems and reception logs;
 - (b) automated monitoring of our websites and other technical systems, such as our computer networks and connections, CCTV and access control systems, communications systems, email and instant messaging systems.

5. HOW AND WHY WE USE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

- 5.1 Under data protection law, we can only use your personal data if we have a proper reason for doing so, such as:
 - 5.1.1 to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations;
 - 5.1.2 for the performance of our contract with you or to take steps at your request before entering into a contract;
 - 5.1.3 for our legitimate interests or those of a third party; or
 - 5.1.4 where you have given consent.
- 5.2 A legitimate interest is when we have a business or commercial reason to use your personal data, so long as this is not overridden by your own rights and interests. We will carry out an assessment when relying on legitimate interests, to balance our interests against your own.
- 5.3 The table below explains what we use (process) your personal data for and why:

What we use your personal data for	Our reasons
To provide products and/or services to you	To perform our contract with you or to take steps at your request before entering into a contract
To prevent and detect fraud against you or us	For our legitimate interests or those of a third party, i.e. to minimise fraud that could be damaging for you and/or us
Conducting checks to identify our staff, volunteers members, partners & suppliers and verify their identity	To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations

Screening for financial and other sanctions or embargoes
Other activities necessary to comply with professional, legal and regulatory obligations that apply to our business, e.g. under health and safety law or rules issued by our professional regulator
Gathering and providing information required by or relating to audits, enquiries or investigations by regulatory bodies
Ensuring business policies are adhered to, e.g. policies covering security and internet use	For our legitimate interests or those of a third party, i.e. to make sure we are following our own internal procedures, so we can deliver the best service to you
Operational reasons, such as improving efficiency, training and quality control	For our legitimate interests or those of a third party, i.e. to be as efficient as we can so we can deliver the best service for you at the best price
Ensuring the confidentiality of commercially sensitive information	For our legitimate interests or those of a third party, i.e. to protect trade secrets and other commercially valuable information To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations
Statistical analysis to help us manage our business and/or interpret our research results, e.g. in relation to our financial performance, customer base, product range or other efficiency measures	For our legitimate interests or those of a third party, i.e. to be as efficient as we can so we can deliver the best service for you at the best price
Research and insight projects and inviting you to take part in these	For our legitimate interests or those of a third party, i.e. to help us better understand your requirements so that we can offer and provide relevant products and/or services to you
Preventing unauthorised access and modifications to systems	For our legitimate interests or those of a third party, i.e. to prevent and detect criminal activity that could be damaging for you and/or us To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations
Updating and enhancing all records	To perform our contract with you or to take steps at your request before entering into a contract To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations For our legitimate interests or those of a third party, e.g. making sure that we can keep in touch with our customers about existing orders and new products
Statutory returns	To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations
Ensuring safe working practices, staff administration and assessments	To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations

	For our legitimate interests or those of a third party, e.g. to make sure we are following our own internal procedures and working efficiently so we can deliver the best service to you
Marketing our services to: volunteers, members, customers, partners & suppliers	For our legitimate interests or those of a third party, i.e. to promote our business to existing and former volunteers members, partners & suppliers
Credit reference checks via external credit reference agencies	For our legitimate interests or those of a third party, i.e. to ensure our volunteers members, partners & suppliers are likely to be able to pay for our products and services
External audits and quality checks, e.g. for ISO or Investors in People accreditation and the audit of our accounts	For our legitimate interests or those of a third party i.e. to maintain our accreditations so we can demonstrate we operate at the highest standards To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations

5.4 Where we process special category personal data, we will also ensure we are permitted to do so under data protection laws, eg:

5.4.1 we have your explicit consent;

5.4.2 the processing is necessary to protect your (or someone else's) vital interests where you are physically or legally incapable of giving consent; or

5.4.3 the processing is necessary to establish, exercise or defend legal claims.

6. PROMOTIONAL COMMUNICATIONS

6.1 We may use your personal data to send you updates (by email, text message, telephone or post) about our products and/or services, including exclusive offers, promotions or new products and/or services.

6.2 We have a legitimate interest in using your personal data for promotional purposes (see above 'How and why we use your personal data'). This means we do not usually need your consent to send you promotional communications. If we change our marketing approach in the future so that consent is needed, we will ask for this consent separately and clearly.

6.3 We will always treat your personal data with the utmost respect and never sell it with other organisations for marketing purposes without your explicit approval.

6.4 You have the right to opt out of receiving promotional communications at any time by:

6.4.1 contacting us at dpo@volleyballengland.org and entering "Stop" in the subject box;

6.4.2 using the 'unsubscribe' link in emails or 'STOP' number in texts;

6.4.3 updating your marketing preferences on our website or membership portal.

6.5 We may ask you to confirm or update your marketing preferences if you ask us to provide further products and/or services in the future, or if there are changes in the law, regulation, or the structure of our business.

7. WHO WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL DATA WITH

7.1 We routinely share personal data with:

- 7.1.1 third parties we use to help deliver our products and/or services to you (e.g. third party software providers, payment service providers, fulfilment, warehouses and delivery companies);
- 7.1.2 the Volleyball England Foundation;
- 7.1.3 Regional Associations and Area Associations;
- 7.1.4 other Clubs and members to facilitate the organisation of volleyball fixtures and events;
- 7.1.5 other third parties we use to help us run our business (e.g. marketing agencies or website hosts);
- 7.1.6 third parties approved by you (e.g. social media sites you choose to link your account to or third-party payment providers);
- 7.1.7 third party research agencies;
- 7.1.8 our insurers and brokers; and
- 7.1.9 our banks.

7.2 We only allow our service providers to handle your personal data if we are satisfied they take appropriate measures to protect your personal data. We also impose contractual obligations on service providers to ensure they can only use your personal data to provide services to us and to you.

7.3 We may also need to:

- 7.3.1 share personal data with external auditors, e.g. in relation to relevant accreditations and the audit of our accounts or reviews by our external stakeholders (such as Sport England and/or UK Sport).
- 7.3.2 disclose and exchange information with law enforcement agencies and regulatory bodies to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations.
- 7.3.3 share some personal data with other parties, such as potential buyers of some or all our business or during a re-structuring. Usually, information will be anonymised, but this may not always be possible. The recipient of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations.

7.4 If you would like more information about who we share our data with and why, please contact us (see 'How to contact us' below).

8. WHERE YOUR PERSONAL DATA IS HELD

8.1 Personal data may be held at our offices, third party agencies, service providers, representatives and agents as described above (see above: 'Who we share your personal data with').

8.2 Some of these third parties may be based outside the UK and/or the European Economic Area. For more information, including on how we safeguard your personal data when this happens, see below: 'Transferring your personal data out of the UK and/or EEA'.

9. HOW LONG YOUR PERSONAL DATA WILL BE KEPT

9.1 We will keep your personal data while you have an account with us or we are providing products and/or services to you. Thereafter, we will keep your personal data for as long as is necessary:

9.1.1 to respond to any questions, complaints or claims made by you or on your behalf;

9.1.2 to show that we treated you fairly; and

9.1.3 to keep records required by law or by our external stakeholders for reporting purposes.

9.2 We will not keep your personal data for longer than necessary. Different retention periods apply for different types of personal data.

9.3 When it is no longer necessary to keep your personal data, we will delete or anonymise it.

10. TRANSFERRING YOUR PERSONAL DATA OUT OF THE UK AND/OR THE EEA

10.1 To deliver services to you, it is sometimes necessary for us to transfer your personal data outside the UK and/or the European Economic Area (EEA). In those cases we will comply with applicable UK and EEA law designed to ensure the privacy of your personal data.

10.2 We will transfer your personal data to:

10.2.1 your and our service providers located outside the UK and/or the EEA;

10.2.2 where there is a European or an international dimension to the services we are providing to you.

10.3 Under data protection law, we can only transfer your personal data to a country outside of the UK and/or the EEA where:

10.3.1 the UK government (or, where the EU GDPR applies, the European Commission) has decided the particular country ensures an adequate level of protection of personal data (known as an 'adequacy decision');

10.3.2 there are appropriate safeguards in place, together with enforceable rights and effective legal remedies for you; or 10.3.3 a specific exception applies under relevant data protection law.

Adequacy decision

10.4 We may transfer your personal data to certain countries, on the basis of an adequacy decision. The list of countries that benefit from adequacy decisions will change from time to time. We will always seek to rely on an adequacy decision, where one exist.

10.5 s.

10.6 Other countries we are likely to transfer personal data to do not have the benefit of an adequacy decision. This does not necessarily mean they provide poor protection for personal data, but we must look at alternative grounds for transferring the personal data, such as ensuring appropriate safeguards are in place or relying on an exception, as explained below.

Transfers with appropriate safeguards

10.7 Where there is no adequacy decision, we may transfer your personal data to another country if we are satisfied the transfer complies with data protection law, appropriate safeguards are in place, and enforceable rights and effective legal remedies are available for data subjects.

10.8 The safeguards will usually include using legally-approved standard data protection contract clauses.

Transfers under an exception

10.9 In the absence of an adequacy decision or appropriate safeguards, we may transfer personal data to a third country or international organisation where an exception applies under relevant data protection law, eg:

10.9.1 you have explicitly consented to the proposed transfer after having been informed of the possible risks;

10.9.2 the transfer is necessary for the performance of a contract between us or to take pre-contract measures at your request;

10.9.3 the transfer is necessary for a contract in your interests, between us and another person; or

10.9.4 the transfer is necessary to establish, exercise or defend legal claims

10.10 We may also transfer information for the purpose of our compelling legitimate interests, so long as those interests are not overridden by your interests, rights and freedoms. Specific conditions apply to such transfers and we will provide relevant information if and when we seek to transfer your personal data on this ground.

10.11 If you would like further information about data transferred outside the UK and/or the EEA, please contact our Data Protection Officer (see ‘How to contact us’ below).

11. YOUR RIGHTS

11.1 You have the following rights, which you can exercise free of charge:

Access	The right to be provided with a copy of your personal data
Rectification	The right to require us to correct any mistakes in your personal data
Erasure (also known as the right to be forgotten)	The right to require us to delete your personal data in certain situations
Restriction of processing	The right to require us to restrict processing of your personal data in certain circumstances, e.g. if you contest the accuracy of the data
Data portability	The right to receive the personal data you provided to us, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and/or transmit that data to a third party in certain situations
To object	The right to object: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> at any time to your personal data being processed for direct marketing (including profiling); in certain other situations to our continued processing of your personal data, e.g. processing carried out for the purpose of our legitimate interests unless there are compelling legitimate grounds for the processing to continue or the processing is required for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
Not to be subject to automated individual decision-making	The right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing (including profiling) that produces legal effects concerning you or similarly significantly affects you

The right to withdraw consent

If you have provided us with a consent to use your personal data you have a right to withdraw that consent easily at any time by contacting our Data Protection Officer (details below).

Withdrawing consent will not affect the lawfulness of our use of your personal data in reliance on that consent before it was withdrawn.

11.2 For further information on each of those rights, including the circumstances in which they apply, please contact dpo@volleyballengland.org or see the Guidance from the UK Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) on individuals' rights.

11.3 If you would like to exercise any of those rights, please:

11.3.1 email, call or write to our Data Protection Officer (see below: 'How to contact us');

11.3.2 provide enough information to identify yourself (e.g. your full name, address, unique reference number or matter reference number) and any additional identity information we may reasonably request from you; and

11.3.3 let us know what right you want to exercise and the information to which your request relates.

12. KEEPING YOUR PERSONAL DATA SECURE

12.1 We have appropriate security measures to prevent personal data from being accidentally lost or used or accessed unlawfully. We limit access to your personal data to those who have a genuine business need to access it. Those processing your information will do so only in an authorised manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

12.2 We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected data security breach where we are legally required to do so.

12.3 If you want detailed information from Get Safe Online on how to protect your information and your computers and devices against fraud, identity theft, viruses and many other online problems, please visit www.getsafeonline.org. Get Safe Online is supported by HM Government and leading businesses.

13. HOW TO COMPLAIN

13.1 We hope that our Data Protection Officer can resolve any query or concern you may raise about our use of your information.

13.2 You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner or any relevant European data protection supervisory authority. The Information Commissioner may be contacted at <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint> or telephone: 0303 123 1113.

14. CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

14.1 This privacy notice was published in January 2021 and last updated on the date set out in the footer (and any such updates shall be deemed to take effect from that date).

14.2 We may change this privacy notice from time to time—when we do we will inform you via our website or email.

15. HOW TO CONTACT US

15.1 Please contact our Data Protection Officer by post, email or telephone if you have any questions about this privacy policy or the information we hold about you, to exercise a right under data protection law or to make a complaint.
