

Call for Applications Position of Assistant Sport Director, World ParaVolley

Background

The World ParaVolley Board recently decided to openly advertise the newly created position of Assistant Sport Director.

It is envisaged that the successful Applicant may become the World ParaVolley Sport Director if elected at the General Assembly, when the current Sport Director, Denis Le Breuilly, retires. Mr. Le Breuilly's retirement may occur in July 2018, or earlier, depending on his personal circumstances.

The Assistant Sport Director will "shadow" the current Sport Director for a period of time due to the learning required and the complexities of the position. This will involve assuming responsibility for certain aspects of the Sport Director role as agreed from time to time.

The Assistant Sport Director is not a member of the World ParaVolley Board and will report directly to the Sport Director.

The process

Written applications are invited for the position and should address the Job Description below (which is necessarily the Sport Director Job Description) and include an appropriate C/V or Resume with contact details. (There is no specific format required.) Character references may also be submitted.

The Application should contain a signed statement to the effect that all submitted information is true and valid.

Applications close on 15 September 2017 and should be submitted to the World ParaVolley General Manager (generalmanager@worldparavolley.org) and copied to the Sport Director (sportdirector@worldparavolley.org).

The Board has appointed an Interview Committee that will short-list and interview candidates using Skype or another agreed communication method. The Interview Committee will make a recommendation to the World ParaVolley Board for the approval of a preferred candidate.

Attached is the Sport Director's Job Description to provide the potential Assistant Sport Director an understanding of the role.
