

CODE OF CONDUCT

1. OVERVIEW OF CODE OF CONDUCT

- 1.1 Volleyball England promotes a safe, engaging, fair and inclusive sporting environment for everyone who takes part or supports the delivery and development of Volleyball through adherence to the respect, good sportsmanship, high standards of behaviour and ethics.
- 1.2 This Code of Conduct sets out the standards and expectations of those in the sport of volleyball. The Code of Conduct has two sections:
 - 1.2.1 Part A - Common Standards – which apply to everyone; and
 - 1.2.2 Part B - Role Specific Standards – which apply to specific roles being carried out (e.g. coach, referee, parent).
- 1.3 Everyone is required to abide by these Codes of Conduct. In addition, we should all ensure that the Codes of Conduct are well known and promoted so that there is a culture of respect and a discrimination free environment for all to enjoy the sport.

2. DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

- 2.1 Should behaviour fall below the standards set in the Codes of Conduct this will be taken seriously and fairly handled according to our open and transparent regulations. The application of sanctions will be consistent, relevant and proportionate, as defined by our Grievance and Disciplinary Policy under which any breach or alleged breach will be investigated.
- 2.2 A copy of the Grievance and Disciplinary Policy can be accessed here.

I understand that if I fail to follow the code, Volleyball England may take action against me under the Grievance and Disciplinary Policy which may result in sanctions including fines and/or suspension.

PART A – COMMON STANDARDS

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 This section of the Code of Conduct applies to everyone.
- 1.2 Our Code of Conduct is applicable to all aspects of the sport and are driven by Volleyball England's Values which are:

 - 1.2.4 Respectful; and
 - 1.2.5 Open.

2. COMMON STANDARDS

- 2.1 As a member of Volleyball England, I will respect:
 - 2.1.1 the rules, regulations and requirements of volleyball;
 - 2.1.2 the rights, dignity and worth of all people involved in volleyball;
 - 2.1.3 the confidentiality and the sensitivities of information I hold;
 - 2.1.4 Volleyball England's policies and procedures and ensure I am aware of the safeguarding, diversity and equality policies;
 - 2.1.5 an individual's reputation and not take any action or make inappropriate comments about a fellow participant, coach, official, volunteer or member of Volleyball England's staff that will bring the sport or those associated with delivering the sport into disrepute, including making comments on social media. I will respect Volleyball England's guidance, policies and requirements on the use of social media;
 - 2.1.6 the position I hold within Volleyball and always conduct myself in an appropriate manner; and
 - 2.1.7 the result of the game and will not attempt to offer or accept either directly or indirectly any consideration whatsoever in return for influencing or attempting to influence the result or seek to achieve personal gain on a result which I can influence by betting on any match or event where I am participating, either by playing, coaching or officiating, or through direct or indirect involvement.
- 2.2 Volleyball is based on teamwork, therefore I will:
 - 2.2.1 not abuse or misuse any relationship of trust or position of power or influence I hold;
 - 2.2.2 be on time and ready to give my full attention to the role I am carrying out within Volleyball;
 - 2.2.3 welcome new members, volunteers, and participates; and

- 2.2.4 comply with the anti-bullying policy and block it out charter and promote this at all times throughout the sport to ensure bullying is not accepted.
- 2.3 I recognise individuals participate in Volleyball to have fun and achieve, therefore I will:
- 2.3.1 recognise the achievements of others and share in celebrating their success;
 - 2.3.2 endeavour to ensure that all involved in Volleyball optimise their potential by promoting the positive aspects of the sport and never condoning the use of inappropriate or abusive language, inappropriate relationships, bullying, harassment or physical violence;
 - 2.3.3 challenge any form of discrimination;
 - 2.3.4 ensure that everyone has the opportunity to participant in a fair, honest environment by rejecting cheating, abiding by the Anti-Doping policies;
 - 2.3.5 display modesty in victory and graciousness in defeat; be sporting;
 - 2.3.6 refrain from arguing with an official or participant during a game and listen to and cooperate with officials' decisions; and
 - 2.3.7 understand that verbal, emotional and physical abuse of officials, coaches, spectators or participants, or deliberately distracting or provoking a participant, coach or official is not acceptable or permitted behaviour in volleyball.

PART B – ROLE SPECIFIC STANDARDS

3. INTRODUCTION

- 3.1 This section of the Code applies to those individuals holding specific roles within the sport of Volleyball.
- 3.2 It should be read in conjunction with Part A (Common Standards) as both sections apply to individuals holding specific rules.

4. COACHES

- 4.1 The Volleyball England Code of Conduct for Coaches is based on four key principles that underpin the values and standards expected at all times. These are:

- 4.1.1 Rights: Coaches must respect and champion the rights of every individual to participate in sport.
- 4.1.2 Relationships: Coaches must develop a relationship with athletes (and others) based on openness, honesty, mutual trust and respect.
- 4.1.3 Personal Standards: Coaches must demonstrate proper personal behaviour and conduct at all times.
- 4.1.4 Professional Standards: To maximise benefits and minimise the risks to athletes, coaches must attain a high level of competence through formal qualifications and commit to ongoing personal development to ensure continuing safe and correct practice.

- 4.2 In my capacity as a coach I will therefore:

- 4.2.1 act as a positive role model for volleyball by acting in a way that projects a positive image of my role within volleyball and being fair, considerate and honest with participants, parents and officials;
- 4.2.2 create an environment where everyone can take part at their own level and I will seek to inspire and motivate each participant in line with their age, maturity, experience and ability to enable them to reach their full potential;
- 4.2.3 place the welfare and safety of the participant above the development of performance and maintain an environment free of fear and harassment;
- 4.2.4 cooperate fully with others involved in Volleyball England activities such as officials, team managers, other coaches and participants, medical staff, and representatives of Volleyball England, in the best interests of the participant;
- 4.2.5 develop appropriate working relationships with participants based on mutual trust and respect, especially with those athletes under 18 years or adults at risk;
- 4.2.6 recognise the power inherent in the position as a coach and act appropriately;
- 4.2.7 promote the concept of a balanced lifestyle, supporting the well-being of participants in and out of the sport;
- 4.2.8 communicate with and provide feedback to participants in a way that reflects respect and care;
- 4.2.9 be aware of the current national and international regulations on anti-doping in sport; educate participants on issues relating to the use of performance-

enhancing drugs in sport and comply with anti-doping practices, policies or procedures;

4.2.10 keep up to date through qualification and/or education and learning with the latest practices and developments to the level of operation required; and

4.2.11 comply with other relevant Volleyball England policies such as data protection and health and safety.

5. OFFICIALS

5.1 In my capacity as an official I will:

5.1.1 work with others to ensure smooth running of competitions and events (and in particular respond within reasonable timescales to correspondence from the Hub Team, event organisers, referee co-ordinators, relevant working groups and individual clubs);

5.1.2 promptly inform the relevant organisers if my availability changes or I am no longer able to fulfil relevant commitments;

5.1.3 ensure I am fully aware of and comply with any processes relevant to a particular competition (e.g. NVL rules/submission of match reports etc);

5.1.4 officiate in an unbiased manner, making all decisions based only on the evidence presented and without reference to any incidents which may have occurred at an earlier date. At all times, referee within the true spirit of the game and not only to the simple letter of the laws;

5.1.5 be representing Volleyball England from the moment of arrival at a venue until the point of departure, and will deal with all participants (players, coaches, volunteers and spectators) showing respect. I will keep social contact with players and coaches before and after a match to a minimum;

5.1.6 respect other officials and ensure I make no comments (publicly or otherwise) that may be deemed likely to cause offence or be detrimental to the reputation of others;

5.1.7 be registered with Volleyball England as an official, and ensure that I at all times support the endeavours of Volleyball England and support its official events and competitions in priority to other competitions and events. I will not act as an official representing Volleyball England outside of England without permission from the Officials Group Lead;

5.1.8 as an official, ensure that I have a current understanding of the application and interpretation of the official rules of volleyball based on FIVB and Volleyball England guidelines;

5.1.9 ensure that I am committed to continued professional development of my knowledge and skills through formal training, practical assessment and reviews of performance.

6. VOLUNTEERS

6.1 In my capacity as a volunteer I will:

6.1.1 be a positive role model for volleyball by acting in a way that projects a positive image of my role within volleyball and being fair, considerate and honest with participants and officials;

- 6.1.2 exercise reasonable care and skill when carrying out my duties, including but not limited to keeping up to date with the latest practices and developments by taking up further education and other personal and professional development opportunities where appropriate;
 - 6.1.3 ensure that I follow instructions and comply with all health and safety regulations that apply to the role I am undertaking;
 - 6.1.4 promote and embed the Volleyball England values, aims, objectives and policies.
- 6.2 In my capacity as a Volleyball England Board member or a member or a sub-group, working group, regional or county committee (as appropriate) I will also:
